January 25, 1977

The students of the Class of 1977 of the New Mexico School for the Deaf have already accomplished much in overcoming a handicap to reach graduation ceremonies.

But with graduation comes new challenges and new opportunities for you. It will not always be easy, but that should not disturb you. Nothing worthwhile is ever easy.

As you continue to pursue your schooling, your careers and your personal lives, please be confident of the skills you have acquired over these years in Santa Fe. You have been taught well and you need not be apprehensive.

Best of luck always!

Sincerely,

JERRY APODACA
Governor

CLASS OF 1977

I congratulate each of you on completing a program at the New Mexico School for the Deaf. You have worked many years to reach this day. I am sure that you are as pleased with your progress as those of us that have worked with you.

When I think of the Class of '77, I have known most of you throughout your entire school career. I appreciate very much the effort you have put forth, as well as your cooperation. The fine progress that the class has made should provide an example and a pattern for our younger students to follow. I know that you will put forth the same effort in your next program and in life and will be just as successful.

Again, I congratulate each of you and our best wishes go with you.

Sincerely,

James A. Little

THE IMPOSSIBLE DREAM

VALEDICTORY

Sid Haley

We, the Seniors of 1977, look back on our school days with mixed feelings. We have many wonderful memories of our years at New Mexico School for the Deaf. We've had a lot of fun and have studied hard and learned a lot. Most of us started school here as children. Today we leave as adults. It's hard to believe this is really our last day as students at the New Mexico School for the Deaf. How could the time have passed so quickly?

We know that the world holds many challenges for us. With the knowledge we have gained here, we feel confident that we can meet each new one successfully. Dean Atcheson once said, "The best thing about the future is that it comes only one day at a time." We have been taught to do our best on every task that faces us. By doing our best on a daily basis, we can't help but be successful adults.

We all know that our educations will not end today; but because of the foundations laid here at N.M.S.D., we are prepared to continue our studies in college or on-the-job. We will always have a deep feeling of gratitude for everything New Mexico School for the Deaf has done for us. We are thankful that you have guided us successfully to our graduation day.

Thank you all for your guidance and understanding. Farewell to you all.

SALUTATORY

Joe Giarratano

I am proud to welcome all of you to our 1977 Commencement Exercises. I am pleased to see that so many of our friends and relatives have been able to share this happy moment with us. Thank you for coming.

Although most of us have spent 14 to 16 years in school, we are not prepared to step into a ready-made position in the ever-changing world.

Our teachers and counselors have done a fantastic job with us; but the rapid changes due to advanced technology, energy shortages, and a limited number of jobs make it necessary for us to continue our education to meet or help bring about more changes in the future.

We know our lives will not be easy, but at least we will not be afraid of what may come. We don't know yet what to expect, but we are ready for whatever comes our way.

When somebody leaves here, he will still have time to contemplate about his future because he can still go to college and choose a major to follow. We hope everyone will be successful in his future.

We hope you will remember us and we will always remember the things we did and the friends we had here. Farewell to you all!!
